Redesigned Tokyo Opera City Art Gallery museum shop opens

Tokyo Opera City Art Gallery's museum shop Gallery 5 reopened on April 15, 2022 with a new look. The shop was reopened by limArt Co., Ltd., which has a strong reputation in the art world for a broad range of activities including publishing and selecting mainly art-related books, operating the imported book specialist POST, and organising the Tokyo Art Book Fair.

Schemata Architects handled the interior design and Yoshihisa Tanaka created the graphics. Retaining its original concept of serving as a 'fifth gallery' to complement Tokyo Opera City Art Gallery's four galleries, the shop changes its layout with each exhibition, and aims to be a shop where visitors can always find wonderful merchandise and books.

In addition to specially designed merchandise, the shop plans to sell a variety of items created through collaborations with artists.
